Including nature in climate assemblies

Martina Francesca

What if...

*Nature had a seat at the table
in climate assemblies?*

Let's explore:

- What kind of impact could this have?
- How to give voice to more-than-human beings in deliberative settings?

La Prossima Cultura: who we are

We regenerate relationships

- among people
- with nature

La Prossima Cultura:
who we are

Facilitation, participation and deliberative processes, deep ecology, systems thinking...

*are part of an emergent,
regenerative culture.*

The voice of nature in decision making processes

Considering nature as a stakeholder.

From individual self to collective self.

Nature in citizens assemblies?

*Different ways of including the voice of nature:
listening to representatives, embodying non-human beings (dialogues), individual communication...*

Experiences

- Facilitation: meeting with "the other"
- Conflict mediation
- Council of all beings on ecosystem collapse
- Work That Reconnects practices
